TED TURNER

R. E. "Ted" Turner has become a household word in the world of sports not only through his ownership of the Braves and basketball Hawks, but also because he is a star performer himself as a yachtsman of considerable achievement.

Turner's most notable deed as a participant came in 1977 when he skippered "Courageous" to victory in the prestigious America's Cup races. He was named Yachtsman of the Year for the third time by the New York Yacht Club on the strength of those wins.

The dynamic television magnate became owner of the Braves on Jan. 14, 1976 when National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta-LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Corporation.

He has been an owner who isn't afraid to take a chance, or to spend money in attempts to improve the team. Turner has acquired such players as Andy Messersmith, Gary Matthews, Al Hrabosky, Claudell Washington and Gaylord Perry as free agents and has produced an improved farm system by adding quality instructors for each facet of the game at every stop in the Braves' minor league chain.

It is in the field of television where Turner has really made unprecedented strides. His "Super Station" which resulted from a bold move by Turner now reaches 49 states, Puerto Rico and a Caribbean circuit amounting to more than 11 million homes. On June 1, 1980, Turner started Cable News Network, the first and only 24-hour all news television station.

Turner was born in Cincinnati, O., on November 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company in Savannah, Ga. He became general manager of Turner Advertising in Macon, Ga., in 1960 at the age of 22 and in 1963, became president and chief executive officer of the various Turner companies with offices in Atlanta.

In 1970 Turner Communications Corporation merged with Rice Broadcasting, with Turner becoming general manager of the flagship station, WTCG (now WTBS) in Atlanta.

The Federal Communications Commission approved use of a satellite system in 1976 which allowed Turner Communications to beam WTBS's signal across the United States.

Turner is a member of the Atlanta Advertising Club, the Atlanta Yacht Club, and the Capital City Club. Turner and his wife, the former Jane Shirley Smith of Birmingham, Ala., live in Marietta, Ga. They have five children, Laura Lee, R. E. Turner IV, Rhett, Beau and Jean.

AL THORNWELL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Al Thornwell became Executive Vice president of the Braves on Feb. 6, 1980. He oversees all operating procedures of the team. Al, a native of Atlanta, represents the Braves at all National League and major league meetings.

Long a respected Georgia businessman, Al is also President and Treasurer of E. A. Thornwell, Inc., a family owned electrical distributorship, and Elliott's Container Service, Inc. of Augusta, Ga. The Braves' chief operating officer is on several boards of directors including Turner Broadcasting System, whose Atlanta-based WTBS-17 televises Braves games into 49 states. He has also served on the Braves' Board of Directors since Ted Turner purchased the team prior to the 1976 season. In addition Al is currently the Braves' Corporate Secretary.

He is the former Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of the Atlanta Chiefs Soccer Club. Under his direction the team won the Eastern Division title of the Indoor Season in 1979-80.

Active in numerous civic and community organizations, Al is President of the Stadium Club at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. He is a lawyer by education but has not been involved in actual practice.

JOHN MULLEN

GENERAL MANAGER

When John Mullen became General Manager of the Atlanta Braves in May, 1979, it was a homecoming of sorts. John's career in baseball began with the Braves' organization when it was based in Boston some 33 years before.

He came back to the Braves from Houston, where he had been Assistant to the General Manager. Upon accepting the Braves' General Manager's post, a position which was vacant because of the death of Bill Lucas, John said, "My family and I hate to leave Houston, but the opportunity is too good to pass up. I can't pass up the chance to run my own club, especially when it's the Braves."

John's original tenure with the Braves began in January, 1947 after having taking a part-time position the previous month. He was Assistant Farm Director until May, 1953, when he became Farm Director for the franchise, which had vacated Boston for Milwaukee after the previous season. During his years as Farm Director until 1966, John is credited with having signed many of the players for the Braves who developed into World Champions in 1957, National League pennant winners in 1958, and division winners in Atlanta in 1969. Some players signed under his direction include Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro, Eddie Mathews, Johnny Logan, Del Crandall, Lee Maye and Mike Lum.

John left the Braves in September, 1966, when he went to work for the Houston Astros as assistant to Director of Player Personnel and Manager Grady Hatton. At mid-season, he became the Assistant to the General Manager, the position he held until coming back to the Braves in 1979.

Upon return to his original organization, John has maintained the Atlanta Braves' philosophy of developing from within by having a strong minor league organization. This is a philosophy that has been adhered to since his previous years with the Braves. "Baseball has changed greatly because of escalating salaries and long term no-trade contracts," Mullen says. "But signing and developing your own players is still the best avenue for success. Trading has become less and less important."

John's baseball background gives him years of experience in analyzing talent. In his previous years with the Braves he oversaw the signing and development of players that worked their way up to the major leagues. While with Houston, Mullen spent most of his time scouting players in the American and National Leagues with the purpose of judging major league talent to assist in trading. It is this development of baseball savvy which makes John so valuable to the Braves organization.

Mullen served four years in the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II. He and his wife Claire have a daughter, Kathleen, and two sons, Christopher and Richard.

HENRY AARON DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Hank Aaron begins his fifth year as Director of Player Development for the Braves in 1981.

The greatest home run hitter of all time rejoined his old club in 1976 when he was named to his current post by Braves' president Ted Turner. He ended his career as one of the immortals with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1976.

Aaron is, of course, one of the greatest stars to ever play the game. He rewrote baseball's hitting record book and holds or shares 21 major league records. Included among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Games, Lifetime, 3,298; Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Plate Appearances, Lifetime, 13,940; Most At-Bats, Lifetime, 12,364; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755.

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974 when he hit his 715th home run, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing.

Aaron was voted the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 as he led the Milwaukee Braves to the World Series championship. He played in 24 All-Star games, 14 World Series games and three Championship Series games. He is one of just five players in major league history to hit 30 home runs and steal 30 bases in a season.

He becomes eligible to join the Hall of Fame in 1982 and it is expected he will be the first unanimous choice ever elected.

BOB COX

MANAGER NO. 6

Robert Joe Cox. Born May 21, 1941 at Tulsa, Okla. 6-0, 180. Graduated from Selma High School, Selma, Ca., 1959. Attended Reedley Junior College, Reedley, Ca. Married Pamela Boswell, has five children, Debbie, Robert Jr., Connie, Randy, and Shelly. Lives in Marietta, Ga.

Bob led the Braves to their first plus .500 season since 1974 last year, finishing 81-80, in fourth place in the National League West. During the final third of the season, the Braves won more games than any other team in the National League. The 1980 Braves were widely acknowledged as the most improved team in the NL. Cox received numerous votes for NL Manager of the Year for his leadership.

With last year's strong finish, and the off-season additions of Claudell Washington, John Montefusco and Gaylord Perry, the Braves have been rated a contender to move ahead of the 1980 division champion Houston Astros.

Cox begins his fourth season as skipper of the Atlanta Braves in 1981. Only Luman Harris has managed the Braves longer. Cox became the Braves' seventh full-time manager on November 22, 1977 when president Ted Turner and then Director of Player Personnel Bill Lucas announced their decision to hire him.

He came to the Braves after one year as a big league coach with the World Champion New York Yankees. In 1977, Cox had served as the Yankees first base coach and as a right hand man to Yankee manager Billy Martin.

Cox has had extensive managerial experience, too. For six years he managed in the Yankee farm system, never finishing lower than fourth. He twice won pennants as a Yankee farm manager, once with West Haven of the Eastern League in 1972 and again with Syracuse of the International League in 1976. Ironically, that Syracuse team defeated the Braves' Richmond team that year for the IL title.

Cox began his baseball career in 1960 when he signed with the Los Angeles Dodger organization as a second and third baseman. He enjoyed some excellent minor league seasons, once hitting .337 with 19 homers and 85 RBIs. He also led his league in fielding on three different occasions during his minor league career. He was traded into the Atlanta organization in 1966 and played the entire 1967 season at Richmond, compiling a .297 batting average with that Atlanta farm team.

Before the 1968 season, however, the Braves traded Cox to the Yankees in exchange for catcher Bob Tillman and pitcher Dale Roberts. Cox immediately went about winning the regular third base job for the Yankees and went on to win All-Rookie team honors that season. In 1969, Cox began the season as a regular at third base again, but lost the job to his roommate at the time, Bobby Murcer.

Cox ended his playing career in 1971 when bad knees hampered him. He took over at Ft. Lauderdale of the Florida State League as manager at the age of 30 and took that team to a 71-70 season.

Promoted to West Haven of the Eastern League the next year, Cox won his first pennant as that club put together an 84-56 mark. In his six seasons as a minor league manager, Cox had a 456-387 record, a .542 percentage.

Cox was a big part of the Yankees' success in 1977 and proved a key in the development of youngsters like Ron Guidry, who were vital to the Yankee pennant push.

Cox married the former Pamela Boswell of Rome, Ga. in November, 1978.

RICK CAMP

P NO. 37

Rick Lamar Camp: Born June 10, 1953 at Trion, Ga. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 198. Graduated from Trion High School, 1971. Attended West Georgia College, Carrollton, Ga. Married Debbie Hider. Lives in Trion. Acquired — Signed after selection in 6th round of 1974 free agent draft by Red Wooten.

Rick made an impressive comeback last season from arm trouble to become not only the ace of the Braves' bullpen, but one of the top relievers in baseball. Perhaps a late season headline which read "Washed-Up" Camp Braves' Bullpen Ace" and nominations for comeback player of the year show the dramatic turn around by the righthander... Made squad as a non-roster invitee at Braves' 1980 spring training camp.

Camp, voted by his teammates as the Braves' Most Valuable Player in 1980, saved 19 games after the All-Star break, six more than his nearest competitor in the NL. His 22 saves last year tied for third in the league and his 1.92 ERA tied for second among those pitchers with 100 or more innings... Was the NL's Player of the Week for his performance from Sept. 22-28 when he pitched in three games, allowing no baserunners and earning three saves... Rick closed out the season by allowing just four earned runs during his last 31 appearances covering 45 2/3 innings. His ERA during that span was 0.78... Rick's 77 relief appearances last year broke Clay Carroll's Braves' record of 73 appearances set in 1966... Versus Los Angeles in 1980 Rick allowed no earned runs in 12 2/3 innings and recorded 6 saves in 8 appearances. Against San Francisco he allowed no runs in 12 innings and had 3 saves.

Rick earned his way to Braves' pitching staff in 1977 with sensational spring. However, his spot on the roster was taken on Opening Day by Andy Messersmith, signed as a free agent... A native Georgian, Camp was an all-state football player at Trion High School and had college offers... Helped save the life of a companion during a boating mishap in the winter of 1977 when a boat overturned in Coosa River. Rick jumped into freezing water to pull companion to safety. He is an avid hunter and fisherman.

CHRIS CHAMBLISS

INF NO. 10

Carroll Christopher Chambliss. Born Dec. 26, 1948 at Dayton, Ohio. Bats left, throws right. 6-1, 215. Graduated from Oceanside (Calif.) High School. Graduated from Mira Costa Junior College (Calif.) Attended UCLA. Attended Montclair State during off season. Married Audrey Garvin, has one child, Russell. Live in Upper Saddle River, N.J. Acquired — Obtained with Luis Gomez in trade with Toronto for Joey McLaughlin, Barry Bonnell and Pat Rockett, Dec. 6, 1979.

Chris was the Braves' "Mr. Consistency" in 1980. He tied Ed Konetchy's all-time Braves record by playing 158 games at first base. Chris never went more than four games without a hit last year and that happened only once. His 37 doubles tied an Atlanta Braves record set by Hank Aaron in 1967. Chris tied his career high of 18 home runs in 1980 and his 13 game winning RBI's tied Dale Murphy and Gary Matthews for the club lead. Had 9 (June 7-16) and 10 (July 18-26) game hitting streaks and two four-hit games (June 16 vs. St. Louis and Sept. 22 vs. Los Angeles)...A solid defensive first baseman, Chris helps steady the young Braves infield.

Chris' Dec., 1979 trade to the Braves was his second move in little more than a month. He was traded from the Yankees to Toronto with pitcher Paul Mirabella and infielder Damasco Garcia for pitcher Tom Underwood, catcher Rick Cerone and outfielder Ted Wilborn on Nov. 1, 1979. Originally Chris was Cleveland's No. 1 pick in the January, 1970 Free Agent Draft. Was traded to the Yankees with pitchers Dick Tidrow and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974.

Few people will forget Chris' homer to beat the Royals in the 9th inning of the 1976 American League playoffs. Finished 5th in the MVP voting that year. Was named Rookie of the Year in the AL in 1971 after only one full year in the minors. Batted .342 his first season at Wichita, making him the first rookie to win a Triple-A batting title. Played just one season at UCLA, where he set school records with 15 HRs and 45 RBIs. Played baseball and football at Mira Costa Junior College. Was a fullback for the football team. With Oceanside High School was All-League shortstop as a junior and All-League first baseman as a senior. Won Golden Glove Award for fielding with Yankees in 1978, committing just four errors in 1481 total chances, a .997 fielding percentage which tied him with Joe Pepitone for all-time Yankee first baseman single season mark.

Chris is the son of a Navy Chaplain, who traveled for much of his youth. Was a member of the Air National Guard. Had a 2-run single to beat the White Sox in his first major league start. is a cousin of former Celtics' basketball star Jo Jo White.

BOB HORNER

INF. NO. 5

Robert Horner. Born Aug. 6, 1957 at Junction City, Kan. Bats, throws right. 6-1, 210. Graduated from Apollo (Arizona) High School. Attended Arizona State University. Married Christine Berry. Lives in Dunwoody, Ga. Acquired — Signed after selection as nation's No. 1 pick in June, 1978 draft by Tom Morgan.

One of the top sluggers in the game, Bob finished second in the NL (behind Mike Schmidt) with 35 homers in 1980. With the Braves' Dale Murphy finishing third with 33 home runs, it was the first time in the league that two players from the same team finished in the top three in homers since the Braves' Davey Johnson and Darrell Evans accomplished the feat in 1973. . . . After a slow start and early season injuries, Horner hit .302 with 30 homers and 76 RBIs during the final 90 games. He was named Player of the Month of July in the NL when he hit 14 home runs and had 33 RBIs. His 14 homers in July fell one short of the major league record for that month shared by Joe Adcock, Hank Greenberg and Joe DiMaggio. . . . Bob hit two homers in a game four times last year, on June 1, July 16, July 22 and September 7. His 12-game hitting streak in July tied Gary Matthews for the club's longest in 1980. Bob also had two 9-game streaks.

Hit .307 with 23 homers at home in 1980. . . . Hit five homers each against Houston, Los Angeles and Philadelphia and four versus Pittsburgh, San Diego and San Francisco. . . . Batted in runs in eight consecutive games in July to tie a club record he previously shared with Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews. . . . His 89 RBIs tied Dale Murphy for the club leadership.

Bob ranks 3rd on the all-time Atlanta career home run list with 91. . . . After three seasons, Bob's homers per times at-bat ratio compares favorably with other great sluggers: Hank Aaron, 22.69; Joe DiMaggio, 17.36; Willie Mays, 17.78; Ted Williams, 17.38; and Rudy York, 13.33. Horner's 91 homers and 250 RBIs in 334 games project to 44 and 122 over a 162 game season. . . . Possesses .533 lifetime slugging percentage.

Was named Rookie of the Year in 1978 by The Sporting News and the Baseball Writers Association of America. . . . In first pro game hit a homer after being chosen as nation's No. 1 draft pick off Arizona State University campus. Homer came off Pittsburgh's Bert Blyleven, June 16, 1978, at Atlanta Stadium. Horner had one other hit, a single, in his debut. . . . Set an Atlanta record with nine sacrifice flies in 1978. . . . Bob finished fifth in the NL in batting average in 1979. His 20-game hitting streak was second longest in the NL that year. . . . Had two 4-hit games in 1979, on June 8 versus Philadelphia and June 28 against San Diego.

Bob hit NCAA record 25 homers at Arizona State. . . . Braves had planned to start Horner at Savannah following draft, but he talked them into staying with parent club. . . . Was College World Series MVP in 1977.

LARRY McWILLIAMS

P NO. 27

Larry Dean McWilliams. Born Feb. 10, 1954 at Wichita, Kan. Bats, throws left. 6-5, 175. Graduated from L.D. Bell High School, Hurst, Tex., 1972. Attended Paris Jr. College, Paris, Tex. Married Vicki Gayle, has one child, Maurine Kelly. Lives in Decatur. Acquired — Signed after selection in first round of January, 1974 draft by Al LaMacchia.

The highlight of Larry's 1980 season was being named National League Player of the Week for his performance from July 14-20. The stringbean lefty received the award after recording two complete game victories, beating New York 5-2 on July 16 and Philadelphia 3-2 on July 20. He was the only Braves starting pitcher to be honored so in 1980... Shutout San Diego on three hits on July 4... Was 8-3 while pitching at home last year.

In first major league game Larry shutout New York, 3-0 on July 17, 1978, with relief help from Gene Garber... Had three combined and one solo shutouts that season and didn't allow a run in his first 14 big league innings... Has been a part of seven shutouts in his 48 big league starts... His seven straight wins in 1978 was the best streak of any Braves pitcher since Buzz Capra had a team record nine in 1974... Big moment came when he combined with reliever Garber to stop Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games, a National League record. Larry made a "grab and hope" catch to rob Rose of a hit in the game.

club leadership. Only five NL pitchers recorded more last year. One of his blankings occurred in a courageous performance at Houston, July 14 when the Braves won 2-0. He was hit on the elbow by a line drive while pitching batting practice two days before. Despite pitching in pain, "Knucksie" held the Astros to two hits and recorded a personal season's high of 11 strikeouts... Usually sees opponents' best pitchers. Braves were shutout six times when Phil was on the mound in 1980.

Continued to move up all-time pitching lists in 1980... Ranks seventh actively and 42nd all-time with 233 victories. Whitey Ford is 41st with 236 career wins... Phil has 2578 strikeouts, seventh among active pitchers and 14th all-time. Should move past Bob Feller (2581) and Warren Spahn (2583) as 12th ranking strikeout artist in first 1981 start... Has 38 career shutouts, 10th actively and 50th all-time... Phil's 4044 innings pitched rank third among active pitchers and 26th all-time... Also ranks 23rd with 504 games started and 33rd all-time with 648 games pitched... Turns 42 on April 1. Is the third oldest player in the majors, behind teammate Gaylord Perry and Jim Kaat.

Pitched no-hitter against San Diego, Aug. 5, 1973... Recorded 200th career win May 1, 1979 when he beat Pittsburgh 5-2... His 200th career complete game came Aug. 12, 1979 against Houston... Was named to major league all-star game in 1969, 1975, and 1978... Went on post-season tour of Japan following 1979 season as member of NL team that played AL all-stars. He was voted the outstanding pitcher on the trip and was the only two-game winner.

A great humanitarian, Phil formed Phil Niekro Roasts, Inc. to help raise funds for Spina Bifida, the second most common birth defect... Won the Brian Piccolo Award in 1977... Has aided March of Dimes, Big Brother Association and Empty Stocking Fund... Works as Braves' player-representative... Was candidate for Braves' managerial post eventually filled by Bobby Cox... Among his hobbies is writing poetry... High school chum and teammate was John Havlicek, the former Boston Celtics great.

Gaylord has 3276 career strikeouts, second behind Walter Johnson's mark of 3508 as baseball's all-time leading strikeout pitcher. Has struck out 200 or more batters in a season seven times. ... Lifetime ERA of 2.96 ranks 13th all-time among pitchers with 3000 or more innings. ... Tied with Don Sutton behind Tom Seaver as the second leading active pitcher in career shutouts, having pitched two last season (at Texas) for a total of 52. Is 11th on all-time majors league shutout list.

Ernie Johnson, Pete Van Wieren, Skip Caray and Darrel Chaney will be the broadcasting team for the Braves in 1981.

ERNIE JOHNSON

Ernie Johnson, the Braves' Director of Broadcasting, will anchor the Braves' radio and television broadcasts again in 1981. Johnson, who played with the Braves and pitched in the World Series for Milwaukee in 1957, has worked with the organization for over 30 years. He served as public relations director before assuming his broadcasting duties in 1962. He became a Braves' play-by-play broadcaster in 1966 and was named Director of Broadcasting in 1974. Ernie was named Georgia Broadcaster of the Year for 1977.

Ernie and his wife Lois live in Crabapple, Ga.

PETE VAN WIEREN

Pete Van Wieren begins his sixth year as one of the voices of the Braves. He began his big league broadcasting career with the Braves in 1976 after working with the Tidewater Tides of the International League as a play-by-play man for two seasons. In addition, since beginning his broadcasting career in 1965, Van Wieren has broadcast hockey for the Tidewater Sharks, basketball for the Atlanta Hawks and football telecasts for the Atlanta Falcons, as well as the Independence Bowl football game.

Pete and his wife Elaine live in Tucker, GA, with their two children, Steven and Jon.

Pete was named Georgia Broadcaster of the year for 1980.

SKIP CARAY

Skip Caray begins his sixth year as one of the Braves' voices. The three-time winner of the Georgia Broadcaster of the Year award has been the play-by-play announcer for the Atlanta Hawks for 12 years, as well as a broadcaster for Florida State University football and a talk show host on an Atlanta radio station. His father, Harry Caray, is the voice of the Chicago White Sox.

Caray and his wife Paula live in Atlanta.

DARREL CHANEY

Darrel Chaney is new to the Braves' broadcasting team in 1981. Darrel played with the Braves from 1976-79 and the Cincinnati Reds starting in 1969, prior to coming to Atlanta. He was a member of the Reds' 1975 World Championship team. Darrel's previous broadcasting experience includes sports commentary for a Dayton, Ohio, radio station in 1974-75.

Darrel and his wife Cindy and son Keith live in Stone Mountain, Ga.

The Braves in the World Series

1914 — Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 — Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the series to Lou Bourdreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 — Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 — New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 — New York Met 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 76.9 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score 7-4.
